Cement manufacture in the Presidency.

*1400 Q.—Mr. A. B. SHETTY: Will the hon. the Minister for Development be pleased to state—
(a) whether the question of cement manufacture in this Presidency has been considered by the Department of Industries; and
(b) what steps, if any, the Government have taken in the matter?

A.—(a) & (b) The question of cement manufacture was taken up by the Industries department so far back as 1918–19 when the possibilities of the industry were examined, samples of limestone and clay obtained from the vicinity of Bezwada were analysed and the results of the investigation brought to the notice of various firms and syndicates who appeared likely to be interested. Largely as a result of those endeavours, a company known as the Bezwada Portland Cement Company, Limited, was formed, but the project did not materialize, owing to the depression in trade which precluded the raising of the necessary capital. A concern under the name of the
